Elected to Congress in 2008, Jason Chaffetz rose to Chairman of the powerful House Oversight & Government Reform Committee—only the fifth time in 100 years a three-term representative ascended to such a position. He left Congress in 2017 and is a Contributor on Fox News Networks and a Fellow at Harvard's Kennedy School, Institute of Politics. Before he served Utah's 3rd Congressional District, Chaffetz was Chief of Staff to the Governor of Utah, a businessman in his community for 16 years and a former placekicker on the Brigham Young University football team.
