Actor, director, and producer Kevin Sorbo is best known for his series, Hercules: The Legendary Journeys, which became the most watched TV show in the world. He also starred in the number one independent movie of 2014, God's Not Dead. Sorbo's strength and inspiration stem from his near-death experience in suffering three strokes and battling to regain his life. Today, Kevin enjoys leading a mentoring program and a non-profit that ensures access to safe and enriching afterschool programs for younger children.

All proceeds benefit Vitae Foundation, a national non-profit organization that facilitates research about life issues and applies the findings to create messaging strategies to share with others so that together, we can build a future where abortion is unthinkable.
